

Monday 3rd June 2024

Dear Parents

Welcome to the first of my weekly newsletters which will tell you about our week and give you any important updates and reminders.

My name is Angela Hayward and I am the new Headteacher here at Whitley Chapel C of E First School I am looking forward to getting to know you all over the coming weeks and I am delighted to become part of your community.

I will be writing this newsletter, weekly and usually on a Friday,, but because it is my first day here, I thought it would be nice to send this to you all today. I am anticipating that this letter will grow over the coming weeks and it will become a point of reference for you all in terms of upcoming events and little reminders.

I hope you all had a wonderful half term holiday and I look forward to the half term ahead! I will be in touch again on Friday.

Kind regards,

Mrs Hayward
